

17th Annual Rochester Irish Festival September 9, 10 and 11, 2011

FESTIVAL SPOTLIGHT – JUNE 2011

There are only about two months left before this year's Irish Festival at Camp Eastman. We want to fill you in on some of the fun activities that will be taking place between now and then to get us all good and pumped up for a fun festival weekend! Please pass this on to your friends and relatives and spread the word about our great Festival!

Admissions

Despite the rising business costs and increased expenses –
Festival Admission Prices have remained the same for 2011.

$8.00 per day - advance sale

$10.00 per day - day of event

$20.00 - weekend pass (all three days)

Weekend passes available in Advance ONLY

Happy Hours

Watch for our series of Irish Festival Happy Hours coming again this summer at a watering hole near you. On board so far are Caverly's, Shamrock Jack's, and Sheridan's, and a definite schedule will be coming soon! Come on out and join in the fun, which will include drink specials, guest bartenders, contests and prizes!

Mass and Tribute

As in past years, we will have an Irish Mass at the Festival site at 10 AM on Sunday morning, followed by a traditional Irish breakfast. This year, our Mass falls on Sunday, September 11th, the 10th anniversary of the attack on the World Trade Center, Pentagon, and United Airlines Flight 93. The Mass will include tributes to those who lost their lives on that day, including all the heroic first responders. We hope you can join us for this extraordinary event.

Sponsors

Every month we will use this space to say “Thanks!” to some of our sponsors. This month our special note of gratitude goes to:
